"DOUBTLESS THE
Best Cough Medicine
IN THE WORLD."
[From one of the Oldest and very best Houses in America.]
Messrs. Cutler Bros. & Co.
Cincinnati, Ohio, March 13, 1872
[Please send us Ten gross small and Five gross large "Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam." This is doubtless the best Cough Medicine in the World. (Signed) ALLEN & CO.
P. S.—These parties have sold this Balsam for over thirty years.

[From one of Boston's most estimable citizens.]
No. 5 Worcester St., Boston, March 14, 1873
Messrs. Cutler Bros. & Co.
In ordering another small lot of your invaluable Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam,
I should like to tell you what I know about it, in order that others may have the benefit of my EXPERIENCE.
Since this Balsam first came to my notice, in 1848, I have kept it constantly in the house, never allowing myself to be out of it overnight. In all these TWENTY-FIVE YEARS.
It has not failed in a single instance in my own case to give the desired relief, and I will say the same in regard to my mother, whose LIFE WAS SAVED
by it as I cannot but think. Hers was a case of Congestion of the Lungs, and although attended by a most skillful Physician, who seemed to fail constantly, so that we despaired of her recovery, when an old friend and neighbor persuaded her to try this Vegetable Pulmonary Balsam. The result was most gratifying, I assure you.
RELIEF WAS IMMEDIATE and recovery rapid. She is now over 82 years old, and is active and well. Whenever she gets a severe cold, which happens once in a while, she takes thirty to sixty drops, according to the violence of the cough, which has always yielded in a day or two by taking the Balsam only on retiring at night. With it the IRRITATION
is at once subdued, and a good night's sleep secured. I will mention another case, that of a young lady acquaintance, who BLED AT THE LUNGS
and coughed frightfully, had night sweats and was fearfully reduced. She left Boston for her country home, 150 miles away, as we supposed to die. I sent her a bottle of your Balsam, and soon had the satisfaction to hear that she was much better. She continued taking it for a while and got ENTIRELY WELL,
and is living now, which fact is to be ascribed mainly to the use of the VEGETABLE PULMONARY BALSAM. Very truly yours, JOHN CAREN.

As there are many imitations, be careful to get the genuine. Price in large bottles, which are much the cheaper, $1.00, small bottles, old style, 50 cents.

TRADE MARK
GILES'
LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA.
A MESSAGE TO THE SUFFERING.
When a remedy is productive of such relief as to excel all other remedies in its curative results, it is a duty to make it known as generally as possible. This consideration has actuated the proprietor, Wm. M. Giles, to bring before the public his LINIMENT IODIDE AMMONIA.
The remarkable cures it has effected classes it as one of the most important and valuable remedies ever discovered for the cure and relief of pain in any form. It cures Neuralgia, Face Ache, Rheumatism, Gout, Frosted Feet, Chilblains, Sore Throat, Erysipelas, Bruises and Wounds of every nature, in which the effects of external applications are ... Physicians prescribe it for their patients and accord it their unhesitating approval as an invaluable discovery.
The LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA is an essential appointment in all well regulated stables, and where there is a liability to the visitation of a class of epidermic diseases for which this preparation is a recognized remedy. No stable should be without it, for no stable can really be deemed safe that is not supplied with it.
We append a few of the many testimonials bearing testimony to the universal favor with which this medicine has been received by the public.

Testimonials.
In stiffness and soreness of the muscles and joints, rheumatic pains, I have experienced immediate relief from GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA. THOMAS BAKER, Wallack's Theatre.
For headache, neuralgia, sore throat, inflammation of the feet, GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA gave immediate relief.
L. HENRY MAGONIGLE, Booth's Theatre.
Mr. Wm. M. Giles, Chemist, 451 Sixth Avenue: I suffered with rheumatic pains in my limbs and joints, and found no relief until I tried your LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA, with immediate relief. Am now cured. ROBERT H. SMITH, Head Partner ... and Steamer Jesse Hoyt.
GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA is a rare cure for ague in the breast, and removes all swellings and hard lumps. A NURSING MOTHER.
NEW HAVEN, Aug. 7, 1874.
Dr. Giles —While on duty as fireman on engine 47, about ten miles from this city, on Shore Line Road, was accidentally thrown off against a rock, train under full head, about thirty-five miles an hour. Was very badly bruised. Your agent was on board. He furnished me with two bottles of LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA, from which I received the greatest possible benefit. In four days I was able to sit up, and am now ready to commence work. My aged mother uses it ... for rheumatism, which it cured. JOHN GAFFNEY.
BARNUM'S HIPPODROME, etc.—We have never found anything equal to GILES' LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA. Bruises, wounds, stiffness, lameness, pains in the muscles, swellings, immediately disappear. It is just what we long wanted, and we now use nothing else. In fifty years' experience in Europe and America, I have never met anything like it.
L. B. WOODS,
Veterinary Surgeon, Barnum's Hippodrome.
NEW YORK, June 1st.
Mr. Wm. M. Giles, Chemist. Sir—Your new discovery, LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA, surpasses anything for splints, strains, lameness in the limbs or shoulders, &c., wind galls, and hard, bony swellings on the joints. It is truly marvelous.
Yours very truly, RALPH OGLE,
Veterinary Surgeon, 339 West 25th St.
BOSTON, July 13, 1874.
Mr. W. M. Giles —In the match between the Athletics of Philadelphia and the Boston Club, played July 13th, 1874, at Boston, I fell and displaced my left kneecap. Your agent fortunately happened to be present. He instantly applied your Liniment, and with instant relief.
HARRY C. SHAFFER, Boston Base Ball Club.
BOSTON, Sept. 14, 1874.
Mr. William M. Giles, Chemist. Dear Sir—Your Agent, Mr. Guy S. Frazer, called on me early in July last to introduce your LINIMENT IODIDE OF AMMONIA. Being a skeptic in regard to the great variety of articles patent for the cure of all sorts of diseases, I had no faith in your Iodide, but, after a long discussion with your agent, it occurred to me that I had a horse I was using for private that had a shoe boil on his near forward leg. I told him if he thought it would remove that bunch, I would try it. Suffice it to say, I have used it very persistently till the present time, and I now find it nearly removed, and think it will shortly disappear entirely. From this trial of your remedy I cheerfully recommend its use to any one who has a horse or horses afflicted in this way. I would further say that, while using it for the above, the same horse started a bunch on the off leg, the Liniment was applied immediately, and the bunch has disappeared.

CLARION.
OUR NEW
Portable Cooking Range,
FOR WOOD OR COAL.
The Illuminated Clarion Range is one of the most Elegant and Economical, as we warrant it to be the most Compact and Convenient Cooking Apparatus ever produced.
The following are some of its Special Features. Illuminated Fire Box, Clinkerless Shaking and Dumping Grate, The best chance to Broil without odor, Large Ventilated Oven With or without Hot Closet, Portable Shelf with Large Top Surface, The best Draft Cut-off ever invented, Reversible Collar, Pipe top or Back, Dustless Sifter and large Ash Pan, Skeleton Grate in Hot Closet, Heat thrown under all its six holes, Water Front when ordered, It has Nickel Plated Knobs and is splendidly fitted up, Flues cleaned from the outside.
In connection with the above we would merely add, that in design and finish, it is unsurpassed. It has an unusually large Oven, and extra deep Flues. The Covers and Centers are heavy, so preventing any warping. The Broiling Door is one of the most important features in modern stoves, and is so arranged in THE CLARION that broiling can be carried on successfully without any odor coming into the room. The Illuminated Fire Box presents a cheerful appearance, and shows at all times the condition of the fire without opening the door. The Skeleton Slide in Hot Closet bottom keeps any dish enveloped with warm air. The Sifter is vibrated by a handle through the front plate, and allows no dust to escape.
This Range has been thoroughly tested in every particular, and every disinterested person and dealers will admit it to be the best Cooking Range ever offered to the public. Please call and examine it and we can give you testimonials and references that will be satisfactory to you.

SWORN STATEMENT OF A
BOSTON DRUGGIST
Gentlemen, I hereby certify that I have had Catarrh for ten years, and for the last six years have been a terrible sufferer. I was rendered partially deaf, had buzzing in the head, pains across the temples, dizzy spells, weak and painful eyes, swollen and ulcerated tonsils, hard and constant cough, severe pains across the chest, and every indication of Consumption. My head ached all the time. The matter accumulated so rapidly in my head and throat that I could not keep them free. Frequently at night I would spring out of bed, it seemed to me at the point of suffocation. I would then have recourse to every means in my power to dislodge the mucous from my throat and head before being able to sleep again. For a period of six years my tonsils were ulcerated and so much inflamed that I could with difficulty swallow. I finally consulted an eminent surgeon in regard to an operation on them, but at his request postponed it. The constant inflammation and ulceration in my throat caused by the poisonous matter dropping down from my head had so irritated and inflamed my lungs that I coughed incessantly—a deep, hard cough. Meanwhile my system began to show the effects of this disease, so that I lost flesh, grew pale, and showed every symptom of an early death by Consumption. When matters had reached this stage, or about six months ago, I began the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH. After using the first bottle I began to improve rapidly. The first dose seemed to clear my head as I had not known it to be for years. It seemed to kindly ... to arrest the discharges. It stopped my cough in three days. By using it as a gargle I soon reduced the inflammation and swelling of my tonsils, so that they soon ceased to trouble me. The soreness across my chest disappeared, the buzzing noises in my head ceased, my sense of hearing and of seeing were completely restored, and every symptom of a disease that had reduced me to the verge of the grave disappeared by the use of SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE FOR CATARRH.
I have been thus explicit because, as a druggist, I have seen a great deal of suffering from Catarrh, and hope to convince many that this is a great remedy.
I am familiar with the treatment of Catarrh as practiced by the best physicians, and I have consulted the most eminent about my case. I have used every kind of remedy and apparatus that have appeared during a period of six years past, and have, while following their use, taken great care of my general health, but obtained no relief or encouragement from any of them.
Since curing myself with SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE I have recommended it in over one hundred cases, without a single case of failure, and have in numerous instances received wholesale orders from parties to whom I had sold one bottle. This is the only patent medicine I have ever recommended, never having believed in them before, although constantly engaged in their sale.
Very gratefully yours,
GEORGE F. DINSMORE,
With J. P. White, Druggist,
57 Portland, corner Sudbury street
Boston, February 23.
SUFFOLK, ss. February 23, 1875.
Then personally appeared the said George F. Dinsmore and made oath that the foregoing statement by him subscribed is true. Before me, (Signed) SETH J. THOMAS, Justice of the Peace.

SANFORD'S RADICAL CURE
Is a Local and Constitutional Remedy.
LOCAL—Because it is applied directly to the seat of disease, the nasal passages, by Insufflation, where it acts, instantly clearing the head of mucous accumulations, allaying pain and soreness, subduing inflammation, and gradually drying up the discharge.
CONSTITUTIONAL—Because it is taken internally, where by its alterative and resolvent properties it purifies the blood of the acid poison always present in Catarrh, keeps the pores open, the skin moist and healthy, gives tone to the nervous forces, improves the appetite, and enables the system, by its powerful tonic influence, to completely throw off the disease.
Each package contains a Treatise on Catarrh and Dr. Sanford's Improved Inhaling Tube. Price $1. For sale by Druggists everywhere. WEEKS & POTTER, Boston, General Agents.

A SOMNAMBULIST PILOT

ONE OF THE MYSTERIES OF MISSISSIPPI RIVER NAVIGATION

[From the Atlantic Monthly.]

There used to be an excellent pilot on the river, a Mr. X., who was a somnambulist. It is said that if his mind was troubled about a bad piece of river, he was pretty sure to get up and walk in his sleep and do strange things. He was once fellow pilot for a trip or two with George E——, on a great New Orleans passenger packet. Late one night the boat was approaching Helena, Arkansas, the water was low, and the crossing above the town in a very blind and tangled condition. X. had seen the crossing since E—— had, and as the night was particularly drizzly, sullen and dark, E—— was considering whether he had not better have X. called to assist in running the place, when the door opened and X. walked in.

"Let me take her, Mr. E——. I've seen this place since you have, and it is so crooked that I reckon I can run it myself easier than I could tell you how to do it."

"It is kind of you, and I swear I am willing. I haven't got another drop of perspiration left in me. I have been spinning around and around the wheel like a squirrel. It is so dark I can't tell which way she is swinging till she is coming around like a whirligig."

So E—— took a seat on the bench, panting and breathless. X.—— assumed the wheel without saying anything, steadied the waltzing steamer with a turn or two, and then stood at ease, coaxing her a little to this side and then to that, as gently and as sweetly as if the time had been noonday. When E—— observed this marvel of steering, he wished he had not confessed! He stared and wondered and finally said:

"Well, I thought I knew how to steer a steamboat, but that was another mistake of mine."

X. said nothing, but went serenely on with his work. He rang for leads, he rang to slow down the steam, he worked the boat carefully and neatly into invisible marks, and then stood at the centre of the wheel and peered out blandly into the blackness fore and aft to verify his position. As the leads shoaled more and more he stopped the engines entirely, and the dead silence and suspense of "drifting" followed. When he struck the shoalest water he cracked on the steam, carried her handsomely over, and then began to work her warily into the next system of shoal marks; the same patient, heedful use of leads and engines followed; the boat slipped through without touching bottom, and entered upon the third and last intricacy of the crossing; imperceptibly she moved through the gloom, crept by inches into her marks, drifted tediously till the shoalest water was cried, and then, under a tremendous head of steam, went swinging over the reef and away into deep water and safety.

E—— let his long pent breath pour out in a long, relieving sigh, and said:

"That's the sweetest piece of piloting that was ever done on the Mississippi river! I wouldn't have believed it could be done, if I hadn't seen it."

There was no reply, and he added:

"Just hold her five minutes longer, partner, and let me run down and get a cup of coffee."

A minute later E—— was biting into a pie down in the "texas," and comforting himself with coffee. Just then the night watchman happened in, and was about to happen out again when he noticed E—— and exclaimed:

"Who is at the wheel, sir?"

"X."

"Dart for the pilot house quicker than lightning!"

The next moment both men were flying up the pilot-house companion-way three steps at a jump! Nobody there! The great steamer was whistling down the middle of the river at her own sweet will! The watchman shot out of the place again; E—— seized the wheel, set an engine back with power, and held his breath while the boat reluctantly swung away from a "towhead" which she was about to knock into the middle of the Gulf of Mexico!

By and by the watchman came back and said:

"Didn't that lunatic tell you he was asleep when he first came up here?"

"No."

"Well he was. I found him walking along on the top of the railings just as unconcerned as another man would walk a pavement, and I put him to bed. Now just this minute there he was again, away astern, going through that sort of tight-rope deviltry the same as before."

"Well, I think I'll stay by next time he has one of those fits. But I hope he'll have them often. You just ought to have seen him take this boat through Helena crossing. I never saw anything so gaudy before. And if he can do such gold leaf, kid glove, diamond breast-pin piloting when he is sound asleep, what couldn't he do if he was dead!"—[Mark Twain.

The Auburn Light Infantry "humiliated" itself Fast Day by a bag race and like sorrowful exercises.

A Lewiston man named Dubey, insisted on obstructing the sidewalk because he paid taxes. He now pays a fine.

The case of Albert G. Meserve vs. the city of Auburn, claiming $6000 damages for taking and occupying his house on the Gowell cross road as a hospital for small pox patients in 1872, came up in the Supreme Court at Bath, Saturday, and the jury brought in a verdict of Verdict of $435 for the plaintiff.

Cummings, of Auburn, the engineer, injured in the recent railroad collision, is not so well. His fractured limb is doing nicely, but spinal and other troubles have set in.

E. B. Prince, of Auburn, has a tea-kettle over two hundred years old. His great grandmother, Lydia Freeman, brought the kettle to Minot, in 1707, from Duxbury, Mass. Her father, Joseph Freeman, used it in his family.

GOVERNOR DINGLEY'S DECLINATION

For some time past there has been more or less of gossip in the newspapers—principally confined to the opposition journals—concerning the probabilities of Governor Dingley's renomination and we were aware that at the last election he had frequently expressed a desire to be relieved from official responsibilities at the end of his present term. It being understood that the Governor's indisposition to serve another term was based entirely upon personal considerations and the demands of his private business and that his decision would be a nominal ... the present ... in anticipation of the ... especially as we believe ... Governor would yield to the very general desire for his acceptance of a renomination. The following letter to the Republican State Committee formally announces the decision of the Governor not to be a candidate for renomination.

LEWISTON April 10 1875

Hon J G Blaine Chairman Republican State Committee —

Soon after my re-election to the gubernatorial chair last September I ... to ... and other Republican friends a personal desire to waive the usage in the Republican party in this State ... at the close of my second term. In deference to the judgment of yourself and others ... that I should allow the ... time again I consented to defer final decision of the matter until Spring. ... the personal reasons which led me to desire a release from official duties remain the same ... six months since it is proper that I should now notify you as the Chairman of the Republican State Committee that I must decline to allow the use of my name in connection with a third nomination to the office of Governor. At the same time allow me through yourself to tender my sincere thanks to the Republicans of Maine not only for the confidence and support which they have so generously extended to me thus far during my gubernatorial terms but also for the expressions of ... have given that I might ... my name in connection with a ... other nomination.

With great respect

I am sincerely yours

NELSON DINGLEY JR

While the general public ... the reasons ... involved in the ... of the gubernatorial office ... there will be a very general feeling of regret that Governor Dingley finds it necessary to ... service in a position which has filled so acceptably. Of course ... in Democratic papers to the effect that the Governor has been ... to adverse pressure ... the Republican ... that the Governor has ... But ... Governor ... the ... of the ... Convention ... in ... the Republican party is ... to the acceptance of a third nomination the names of several gentlemen have been ... in connection with the candidacy the most prominent perhaps being that of Gen Selden Connor of Augusta ... officer in the late war ... a ... gentleman and a sterling Republican. It is somewhat early to predict the choice among the worthy citizens whose names will be brought forward by their friends but we ... that of Gen Connor as one which ... in very general ... throughout the State. It is important that the selection of our standard bearer for the ensuing campaign should be thoroughly considered for we want to nominate the best man available and then organize to secure his election by a majority which will exert an influence throughout the whole country.

Senator Morton and his wife being on a visit to New Orleans he is commended in one of the leading papers to the notice of the people as a ... slanderer ... of Butlerism ... Mephistopheles adviser of Grant ... and a venomous and foul mouthed demagogue. All of which reminds us that there might have been something in Sheridan's ... after all.

Gen Lippitt the regular Republican candidate for Governor in Rhode Island publishes a letter in answer to a card of Messrs Hazard and Day repelling their charges that his nomination was brought about by fraud and trickery, and denying that he has acted in this contest otherwise than as a consistent Republican a good citizen and as an honest man. He attributes the result of the election to the Prohibitionists but says in closing

The election will now devolve on the Legislature and if I am so fortunate as to receive a majority of their votes it will be my duty as it certainly is my determination to enforce the laws I find on the statute-book whether they are in accordance with my private opinions or not, and shall earnestly devote such ability as I possess to the fostering and development of the moral and material interests of my native State."

The Troy Times gives currency to the following paragraph:

"It is reported that Chief-Judge Church asserted the other day while on a visit to his old home in Albion, Orleans county, that Governor Tilden is gravitating toward Republicanism. Of course this opinion is based on the fact that the Governor has made war on the canal ring. The Judge can't understand how a genuine Democrat can object to frauds perpetrated upon the State. In a Republican such a course would be natural enough."

A number of fashionable young ladies in Boston have organized a cookery club, meeting twice a week at the residence of each member in turn, who treats her sister-members to a breakfast, dinner or tea prepared exclusively by herself.

There was a slight fall of snow in Washington Tuesday.

Annual Meeting Yesterday Afternoon—Reports of the Secretary and Treasurer—Election of Officers for the Ensuing Year

At 2.30 o'clock, yesterday afternoon, the annual meeting of the Home for Aged Women corporation was held in City Hall. There was a full attendance with President Wheelwright in the chair.

REPORT OF THE SECRETARY

Miss Mary F Prentiss, Secretary of the corporation made her annual report as follows which was accepted

This is the third annual meeting of the corporation. The managers have to report that the home was opened for inmates in July last. The commencement of the home was a measure of much solicitude, many thought it premature and would prove injudicious while others considered it due to those for whom it was intended that we should be sustained in this liberal community and that success would ... the watchful care of Divine Providence. In the selection of officers of the corporation which are to be chosen this day we trust they will be selected with due regard to their fitness, energy and love for the cause.

We cannot conclude without again expressing our sincere thanks to the citizens of Bangor and our friends abroad for the warm interest they have manifested in our behalf and our confident belief that we shall be fully sustained and helped in and again to build up our Home to be an honor to our city, and that the heavenly injunction that "It is more blessed to give than to receive," will more and more influence the hearts and lives of those who are clothed in soft raiment and live in kings' houses" to remember these aged mothers and sisters in disposing of their worldly goods.

Reported Confession of Mrs Blodgett's Murderer

LOWELL April 13 Information has been received in this city to the effect that Mrs Blodgett's murderer has confessed his guilt and that full evidence to that effect will be produced at the trial

Arrest of Moulton's Statements Denied

The witness stated that Gen Butler's communication was delivered to him by Henry J Bowen and that was all he knew about it He did not think that Moulton said to him at that time that Tilton was willing to make statements to the Committee which Moulton did not think true Moulton did not say it would be easy to get a report unfavorable but he did say that Tilton was incensed that his wife should go down and make a statement to the Committee Moulton did not tell him that Tilton would like to communicate to Tilton that the $6 000 he received from Beecher for the purpose of stopping the publication and that he declined On a day Moulton asked him suddenly will he be authorized that $5 000 to any body and he replied any and to tell Moulton to tell Tilton to see Johnson and that he would get Johnson told him he had been sitting at Curtis' in New York and he got these letters after his wife left to meet Tilton He told Johnson that he had no habit but where he was swearing to documents he swore with uplifted hand He was sworn, he believes in Gospels before the Grand Jury, but had not then conscientious scruples Since coming to this trial it is required to him he would swear by God and by no lower symbol When swearing to documents he does not remember how he was sworn He believed Mrs Beecher was absent in May 1871, does not remember distinctly whether it was his sister, Mrs Perkins, who then kept house for him, [here witness stood up and threw off his overcoat] he went on to reply, as early as 1865, he had heard rumors of Tilton's looseness in doctrine I thought he was going through fermentation which every ingenious youth goes through as to tradition and belief

Q—And when did you ever hear he got through?

A—I never did hear it He did not know of Tilton settling down to infidelity There was no doctrine in a technical sense of the word taught in Tilton's articles in the Independent It was not a question of doctrine but policy If not wise it was not sound—that is, sound in the sense of policy

Q—Did you ever see an article by Tilton in the Independent which you considered unsound?

A—I don't recollect any which contained doctrinal statements There was a growing distaste of his teachings My impressions which were more rigorous in orthodoxy were against him I didn't consider him a safe teacher on doctrinal matters but from 1871 I did not regard him as a doctrinal teacher He was editor of a religious paper but not theologically religious I considered him one who applied Christ's principles to common life Before it came into his hands it taught theology He made him a teacher of what things

How Mr Beecher Regarded Tilton as a Moral Teacher

Witness further testified that he regarded Tilton as in a transition state and in building imperfect views, but had hope of him, and thought he was expressing his real views He thought Tilton's views on the divinity of Christ heretical, thought him unsettled in his views on the application of Christian principles He recollected that there was a source of irritation among Congregationalists in the Northwest in Tilton's articles With regard to the testimony of the Independent under Tilton as to marriage and divorce he did not investigate himself but took up what he read

Q—From what you read and did, did you believe Tilton to be a proper man to be a teacher of the people

A—It didn't affect his personal impression of the editor at the time of writing the articles He considered that that time in his editorials his loose notions on marriage and divorce He was a young man at the young man's age with impunity to talk certain things and his shadowing forth was an expression of crude doctrines which might not be definitely dangerous

The Examination Proceeding Quietly

The cross-examination is proceeding very quietly Mr Fullerton speaking very calmly and with less energy generally quite than Mrs Beecher was diffidence of the witness Many ladies came back after the recess owing no doubt to the storm Mr Beecher was in good spirits and remained in the room during the recess Mr Beecher came down to the court room at 10 minutes past 10 and remained in the room until the arrival of the counsel and Judge Porter and Beecher's counsel were all among the earliest arrivals Mrs Tilton was in her usual seat with Mrs Moulton by her side Mrs Moulton was also present

Q—Did you ever see an article by Tilton in the Independent which you considered unsound?

A—I don't recollect any which contained doctrinal statements There was a growing distaste of his teachings My impressions which were more rigorous in orthodoxy were against him I didn't consider him a safe teacher on doctrinal matters but from 1871 I did not regard him as a doctrinal teacher He was editor of a religious paper but not theologically religious I considered him one who applied Christ's principles to common life Before it came into his hands it taught theology He made him a teacher of what things

About a Visit to Mrs Tilton

The cross-examination by Fullerton was resumed commencing with his first visit to Mrs Tilton in December 1870 He went on motion on this ground was to get but Mr Beecher's reply did not [illegible] charged in direct evidence with near the close of the last conference in which Mrs Tilton was present Mr Beecher said on returning to the house he found Mrs Tilton in a very happy frame of mind

Witness—I did not

Mr Fullerton—And yet the next day you published separation

A—I did

Mr Fullerton here threw down his papers with the air of a man who thought he had ended a point

Considering a Letter from Mrs Morse

The counsel next took up Mrs Morse's famous letter of 1871 to which Swing could not recall what the sense of [illegible] Beecher taking any steps to [illegible] He did not ask her to keep quiet about any call of his to Mr Tilton, he did not know what call on Mrs Tilton was referred to He didn't interpret it as referring to his call on Mrs Tilton at Bossit [illegible] He did not remember when to have read any other letter from Mrs Morse [illegible] Beecher identified the letter which he read to the jury [illegible] Mrs Morse to Mrs Tilton, dated Brooklyn, Jan 1871 [illegible] Mrs Tilton's letter to Mrs Morse, dated Jan 1871 [illegible] Mrs Morse's letter was received on January 7th 1871 He recalls no other visit to Tilton's [illegible] difficulty broke out December 30 1870 Can't recall any other visit to the trouble sometimes His impression about it was conveyed to him that Tilton did not wish him to visit his house [illegible] the impression that there was such an intention could not stay whether he did or did not visit Tilton No visit after that in question but that it is not to be considered

The cross-examination during the remainder of the day developed nothing essentially varying from the [illegible] of the direct examination

LOUISIANA

The Proposed Withdrawal of Wiltz

LOUISVILLE April 13 A special from New Orleans to the Courier-Journal says that in compliance with the call of Speaker Wiltz 61 Conservative members of the Legislature met in caucus this afternoon to consider the proposed withdrawal of Wiltz in favor of some Speaker less objectionable to the radical members The correspondent says the movement is strongly urged but that Wiltz will not withdraw It is thought likely that the Wheeler adjustment will find a favorable solution in the present deadlock

The Feeling Regarding the Wheeler Compromise

NEW YORK April 13 A special from New Orleans to the Herald says the proposition of adjustment that among the Conservatives there is no difficulty those opposing the adjustment having been overruled among the Republicans Pinchback and Scantor Wood have tried to make trouble and are still using their influence among the members as they arrive to defeat the adjustment They have visited Gen Sheridan, but it is reported that he told them plainly that the Wheeler plan had the support of the Republicans in Congress and of all good men in the North and if it was not accepted and carried out in good faith on Wednesday he will pack up his trunk and leave the State This suggestion it is said brought even Pinchback to a halt Kellogg is opposed to an adjustment Marshal Packard is opposed to it Some Republican members of the House also oppose it in the hope of having many jobs allowed as the price of their support Governor Kellogg strongly favors the measure and has the support of the best men of both parties The Democratic leaders are also opposed to it The prominent man on the Conservative side are disgusted and some talk of rallying with Westand Pinchback hereafter Leo is said strongly favors a compromise It is believed that the adjustment will be completed today, but some uneasiness was felt because of a reported remark of Wheeler concerning the status of the five members admitted by the Hahn Legislature The Legislature will sit ten days and pass no political bills Several financial reform measures have been prepared and will probably pass

Close of the Direct Examination—The Final Questions and their Answers

Evarts then asked witness whether since December 1st, 1870, to the commencement of this suit he had any improper relations with Mrs Tilton If since that date he had asked or received from her any improper proposals or favors or whether he had any criminal or carnal intercourse with her since that date and he answered in the negative Counsel then asked him whether since the period of his first acquaintance with her to the present time he ever asked or received improper favors from her or had carnal or sexual intercourse with her, to which he answered, No sir I never have There has been nothing between her and me answering to any of the questions

Q—Did Tilton from first to last use in your presence language of accusation, intimation or imputation that there had been criminal intercourse between you and Mrs Tilton?

Answer—He never did.

Q—Did you ever in connection with such imputation intimation or accusation say it was on yourself the blame should fall?

Ans—No, I never did

Q—Did Moulton in all his intercourse with you at any time make any accusation, imputation or intimation of sexual intercourse between yourself and Mrs Tilton?

A—He never did, sir.

The Cross-examination Opened by Mr. Fullerton.

Cross-examination commenced by Mr Fullerton at 12 20 Witness was asked whether it was his custom to swear with uplifted hand or on the Bible He answered that he had no habit but where he was swearing to documents he swore with uplifted hand He was sworn, he believes in Gospels before the Grand Jury, but had not then conscientious scruples Since coming to this trial it is required to him he would swear by God and by no lower symbol When swearing to documents he does not remember how he was sworn He believed Mrs Beecher was absent in May 1871, does not remember distinctly whether it was his sister, Mrs Perkins, who then kept

Three Points for Consideration.

During the past five years the VEGETINE has been steadily working itself into public favor, and those who were at first most interested in its regard to its merit are now its most ardent friends and supporters

There are three essential causes for those having such a history of patent medicines changing their opinion and justify their influence toward the advancement of VEGETINE 1st It is an honest Compound of medicines from barks roots and herbs 2d It honestly accomplishes all that is claimed for it, without leaving any bad effects on the system 3d It proclaims honest vouchers in testimonials from honest, well-known citizens whose signatures are a sufficient guarantee of its statements in the matter Taking into consideration the vast amount of medicines sold, and consequently before the public through the advertising columns, it is a decided proof of merit when we consider the volume of testimonials which have been published for many years, in proof of the wonderful cures effected by VEGETINE

Hon JOHN DICKERSON, D D the late eminent pastor of the South Baptist Church Boston

The Tired Body Sure for Sleep

Boston March 16 1874

H R STEVENS Esq

Dear Sir—I am much from a sense of duty and from the fact that I wish to say to the world that VEGETINE—even if it is a patent medicine—has been of great help to me when not long ago I was so weak that I could hardly walk Its [illegible] exercise so mental that I could not sleep nights more than a few hours at a time, and was generally debilitated At night the poor tired body sure for sleep but all in vain and I was nearly discouraged when one week ago I commenced to take VEGETINE and in a few days found that the VEGETINE taken just before retiring gives me a sweet and undisturbed sleep and without any of the evil effects of the usual sleeping potions I think I may say I could not make those workers sleep But I will be less wordy and tell you plainly that VEGETINE has cured me and I own it

Yours &c, J S DICKERSON

The following letter from Rev O H WALKER R D Pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church in Bangor, is only a part of the many testimonials in favor of VEGETINE which are constantly coming to us from all parts of the country

BANGOR Me Dec 1 1874

H R STEVENS Esq

Dear Sir—I feel it my duty to say a few words in favor of your valuable medicine VEGETINE I was all run down and debilitated and had been for a long time I was unable to sleep and had no appetite I was induced to try VEGETINE and have taken about two bottles and am entirely restored to health I have recommended it to others and shall continue to do so

Yours truly O H WALKER

LOVE'S BELIEF

I be ieve if I should die,
... my eyelids when I lie
Cold ... all the earth contains
... eyes would open at thy breath
... the aisles of death
I ... so gladly back along my veins

I ... if I were dead
... this heart should tread
... what the poor clod chanced to be
It would find sudden pulse beneath the touch
Of him it ever loved in life so much
And throb again warm tender true to thee

I believe if in my grave
Hidden in woody deeps or by the wave
Your eyes should drop some warm tears of regret
From every salty seed of your dear grief
Some fair sweet blossom would leap into leaf
To prove death could not make my love forget

I believe my faith in thee
Strong as my life so nobly placed to be,
It ... expect to see thee ...
... thy hand, ... light soul me
... strikes from the throne ...
As thee I worship, so worship thou hast ...

Hath ... the treasure of his soul ... loved
Like ... with the grape ... grasp

Lily ... There was an accent of stern reproach that she had ever heard from ... which he said ... She felt ... trembled ...

"I am soon to be your wife Guy ... I ... to possess ... Our interests are very closely bound together already ... I did not think ... you would consider it a breach of faith to this lady who wrote to you fully understand my position."

She is not like other women he said ... I should always have the feeling of acting badly towards her if I showed her letter ... to you ... satisfy yourself my love ... will be ... ended."

So Lily perforce had to feign a satisfaction which she was very far from feeling, and which she would have been still further from feeling if she had seen the contents of that carefully withheld letter ... Guy Desmond had been ... a sight of it ... was to the following effect

... that the ... is about to ... KATHERINE

... They were indeed "haunting" eyes large liquid with something of the golden purple of a grape in their depths Grand eyes steady and solemn and largely observant—yes that never flashed quickly about, after the manner of eyes on the detective service but that bent themselves upon you openly and fixedly that never blinked or winked or contracted ... den mean thought and that rarely sought the sheltering shade to be gained from drooping their long lashes back lashes over them

All Lily Baron's exquisite sylph like prettiness faded into nothingness before the presence of this woman "Ha! she called him hither solely to enchain him afresh?" he asked himself hotly And with this hot question came a chilly feeling at his heart Then the two moments that she had given him for observing her were over and she spoke, holding her soft warm hand out to him with an enchanting grace that only a churl could have been in different to

My friend I am glad to see you once more Your coming proves that I was right in asking you to come " Then she made a movement bidding him be seated, and he obeyed her, feeling speechless feeling powerless, feeling that he could be her slave again

It is ten years since you made me the promise you have come to fulfill to-night," she said a little more gayly And then all heaven—all the heaven he had lost—was in her smile as she went on. "You have been long in choosing You have been very hard to please. Report say that you are a wise and a happy man to have waited for and won Miss Baron "

He tried to utter some commonplace about "report being kind " and failed Then it struck him that to have ever thought of making the attempt was to have been guilty of disloyalty to Lily Baron

"Miss Baron and I are never likely to meet " that wondrously charming old love of his went on in that marvelously thrilling voice of hers that made the memory even of most other women's voices seem harsh and discordant to him— Miss Baron and I are never likely to meet, but if we did I could tell her that she too is fortunate I could tell her this for I know you better than she can know you Mr Desmond

I fancied that you had forgotten that you ever had a knowledge of me " he said bitterly How could she have the heart to be so beautiful and so cruelly kind in her power of recollecting now that she was lost to him forever?

Ah! she murmured with a sweet ... superiority that would have been galling to him if he had not loved her for it so ... well— but that is only one of the things that I am judge ... Mr Desmond if you will dare to rake over the ashes of the past you will find that my recollection of the time when we knew each other well is very warm still!

Katherine do you know what you are doing? He was on his feet ... he had crossed the room and was by her side in an instant

Do you know what you are doing?" he repeated stammering ... torrent of emotion ... all the possibility of happiness there was ... spared the feeling ...

And she was ... dangerously calm ... mistress of herself ... Suddenly the calmness deserted her and she drew herself ... with a flutter ...

"I thought I ... —I thought ... both so safe

"Are you?" he cried passionately "That I am not you are. But are you safe? you ... woman so cruelly sure of yourself? Katherine ... your eyes and looks then ... to you as ever—How ...—and you are as dear to me

Her mother was kind and bright and cheery enough then "Lily dear, this is a bad business, but we must both make the best of it. You would like to travel for a time wouldn't you? Well, we will go to Rome until the talk has ended and your cheeks have got back their color Shall we go?"

"Yes mamma dear," Lily said

"And you'll come back brighter and prettier than ever Promise me that you'll take that fine revenge

"I don't know about how I shall come back, Lily said dubiously And then she looked at her mother piteously and whispered, And don't speak of revenge

They never spoke of it to her again but Guy Desmond felt it to be a fine revenge indeed when some months after his marriage he read one morning in the Times

... Poor child! the day on which he would be satisfied with her sweet presence would never dawn again A shadow of this truth struck her when he did not come at twelve o'clock, and she had to go for her ride with out him after having tied her bow so beautifully and all " as she expressed it

Katherine had tried to be true to what was best but Guy Desmond's arguments had proved too potent for her "Why should they all three be unhappy?" he pleaded "If Katherine sacrificed herself the two for whom she sacrificed herself would soon cease to thank her for it You will have spurred me on to my own destruction and hers," he went on " Think what negative happiness will be her share with a husband who married her not because he loves her, but because the woman he loves bids him do it "

It would be ended, he had said, when he had restored her ring to Katherine And so it was; but in how widely different manner from that which he had contemplated! It ended in this wise: He pleaded strongly for himself, and Katherine a "faulty counselor" pleaded well for him, and Lily Baron had soon to learn that she must resign herself to the position of the left one.

"... don't speak to me of G... as you would of other men now"

He did not come to dinner ... all the night through Lily had dreadful dreams in the which the woman with the haunting face played a terribly prominent part. In the morning she dressed herself, still in a nightly flutter for the twelve o'clock ride He will be sure to come to me then she said as she gave the finishing touch to the crimson satin scarf
